

Scribe Document:

First Meeting: October 04, 2024

- This first meeting consisted of planning work distribution and deciding the tradition we wanted to focus on.
- Crafted a little of a mental design plan for the website
 - Image slideshow for the first page
 - Animated backgrounds
 - Header that looks as if it was an actual Texas A&M website (As close as possible)

Edgar - in charge of scribe and gathering information for the tradition

Samuel - leader and in charge of building the website

Communication instances :

Since both parties are friends, a lot of the conversation happened over text and while grabbing lunch.

- Mainly focusing on supporting each other and clarifying progress.
- On October 07, 2024 Prof C was contacted due to unknown team members joining our group by accident, and To clarify our use of CSS.

Resources visited :

(Edgar)

- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xDkvBgq2vkU>
- <https://www.tamu.edu/campus-community/traditions/gameday/12th-man.html>
- <https://gamedayculture.com/12th-man-at-texas-am/>
- https://myaggienation.com/history_traditions/12th_man/the-12th-man-how-e-king-gill-started-texas-a-ms-identity-of-teamwork-and/article_3d5df82c-0394-11e3-95ab-001a4bcf887a.htm

(Samuel)

- <https://www.w3schools.com/Css/>
- <https://www.w3schools.com/HTML>
- <https://cssreference.io/>
-

Second Meeting: October 21, 2024

- The second meeting consisted of checking in on the progress getting both sides' perspectives and suggesting potential improvements
- Made sure all features were working and we followed the rubric requirements